The Montreal Supermotocross in High Definition

The 2009 Montreal Supermotocross: A Must-See, Saturday on TSN

Montreal, November 12, 2009 – The best moments of the spectacular 32nd edition of the Montreal Supermotocross have been assembled in an action-packed highlights show. The hour-long program is scheduled to air in High Definition on Canada's Sports Leader on Saturday, Nov. 14 at 12 noon ET.

Witness American rider Jason Thomas' second triumph in Montreal while Yamaha teammates Colton Facciotti and Dusty Klatt battle for second place on the Olympic Stadium course designed by Canadian MX racing legend Jean-Sébastien Roy.

Other highlights included in the program are the MX2 and ATV finals, won by B.C. rider Kyle Beaton and American Chad Wienen, respectively, as well as the first Endurocross race ever included in the famed Montreal fall classic. The first ever Endurocross race was won by Hungarian rider Kemel Nemeth.

The amazing tricks of professional freestylers Mat Rebeaud, Charly Pages, Wiley Fulmer and Ben Milot close-out this unique hour-long program hosted by Pat Gonsalves and Nova Scotia rider Ryan Lockhart who makes his debut as color commentator.

TSN's broadcast schedule is as follows:

- Saturday, Nov. 14 at 12 noon ET
- Wednesday, Nov. 18 at 12:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. ET

- 30 -
